

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, June 3. 1707.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 10.
Naples, May 17.

THE 15th Instant our Viceroy order'd 600 Men to march to the Abruzzo, to joyn the Troops that are already in that Province, and fall upon the famous Scarpileggia who has drawn some Men together in the Mountains on the Frontier, to facilitate the Entrance of the Imperialists. His Excellency has sent to the Marquis de Bedmar Viceroy of Sicily for Succour; and suspecting Baron Picolomini, has caus'd him to be siez'd and confin'd.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 10.

Rome, May 21. Several Congregations of State have been held, and pressing Orders have been issued for drawing together the Militia, to hinder the Disorders which might be occasion'd by the March of the Imperialists through the Ecclesiastical State for the Kingdom of Naples. The Court has sent Signior Agostini, in the Quality of Commissary of War, to see that the Imperialists be furnish'd with Subsistance and Quarters on the Route which the Pope has agreed they should take. 'Tis said the Viceroy of Naples has desir'd the like, for his Troops, in Case he shall hereafter have Occasion to march them through this State: 'Tis also talk'd, that Signior Molines has made certain Demands in his Name concerning the Investiture of that Kingdom. An Express having brought Advice, that the Imperialists not having found Provisions for them at Castel S. Pietro, have done some Damage there; a new Congregation of State has been held in the Apartment of Cardinal Acciajoli Sub-Dean of the Sacred College, in which it was resolv'd that sufficient Authority should be given to the Apostolical Commissary, for providing Subsistance in proper Places and all other things convenient for the Passage of those Troops. The Duke d'Uzeda Ambassador of King Philip of Spain at this Court, having receiv'd the News of the Battle of Almanza, has made it publick here, and sent it to Naples. 'Tis rumour'd that the Prince of Lorrain Bishop of Osnabrug will be promoted to the Cardinalship. They write from Naples, that the Viceroy has caus'd several Persons to be taken up there, for talking too freely on the present Juncture of Affairs, which has set all Men's Heads a working.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 9.

Turin, May 21. The 14th Instant was our Duke's Birth-day, on which he entred into the 41st Year of his Age; it was observ'd with no other Solemnity than the firing of the Cannon. 60000 Sacks of Meal are providing for the Use of the Imperial Troops that are coming hither from Lombardy. The 17th the last of the French Troops, which with their Sick stop'd at Crescentino, pass'd through our Neighbourhood for Suza, with a great Train of Baggage, and 8 Cannon joyn'd them from hence, to make up the Number allow'd them by the Capitulation. They have for their Guard a Detachment of 100 of our Dragoons, who are to see them clear out of this Country. The Regiment of Schuylenbourg, of 2000 Men, having receiv'd new Colours which our Archbishop had bles'd with great Ceremony, drew out upon the Plain Yesterday and were muster'd, and the Regiment of Germans lately rais'd at his Royal Highness's Expence was incorporated with them; so that 'tis now the best Regiment in our Service. Yesterday Don Pedro Moraz Envoy extraordinary of King Charles III had a long Audience of our Duke at his Seat of La Vigna.

Turin, May 21. The 19th Prince Eugene arriv'd here Post from Milan; the next Day he held a Council of War with our Duke, at which the Hereditary Prince of Heisse-Cassel assited, as did also the Earl of Peterborow, who arriv'd here that Day from Genoa, to conferr with his Royal Highness upon the State of Affairs in Spain, and on some Dispatches which he has receiv'd from England. To Day Prince Eugene went back to Lombardy. The 19th his Royal Highness sent Order to all the Collonels of Horse and Foot, to repair with their respective Regiments to the Camp mark'd out at Rivoli by the 27th Instant, and there wait for further Orders. That Day came Advice from Aosta, that 8000 Hessians were pass'd by there in their Way hither: 7000 German Horse that are coming from Lombardy are to have 3 Days Refreshment in the Meadows of Vanchiglia in the Neighbourhood of this City. The Enemy fortify the Pott of St. Bridger at Pignerol, and thence make Excursions as far as Vigone; whereupon our Duke's Dragoons march'd that Way to Day, to curb them.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 10.

Venice, May 27. The Body of Imperialists commanded by Count Taun continue their March to the Kingdom of Naples. They have already pass'd through the Bologneze; Count Taun is advanc'd with the Vanguard to Forli in Romagna, and the rest are expected there to Morrow: Thence they will proceed along the Coast of the Ecclesiastical State to enter the Kingdom of Naples by the Province of Abruzzo, where 'tis reported a strong Party for the House of Austria impatiently wait their coming. They write from Bologna, that the Marquis Antonio Popoli had receiv'd Advice there by an Express from General Wallis, that Count Taun having open'd in Presence of the General Officers that serve under him a Pacquet of Letters that he had receiv'd from the Emperour, found in it an Order to send General Wetzel Post to the Court of Rome to demand of the Pope the Investiture of the Kingdom of Naples for King Charles III; and that accordingly he dispatch'd General Wetzel thither the 1st Instant.

Milan, May 28. Prince Eugene of Savoy return'd hither from Turin the 22d Instant, and has since held a Council of State. 'Tis said, that the 6th of next Month he will set out from hence, to put himself at the Head of the Imperial Troops that are on the March to Piemont, in Order to open the Campaign the 16th joynly with the Duke of Savoy. The Detachment under Count Taun is far advanc'd on its March for the Kingdom of Naples; and we begin to doubt it will not now be countermanded.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated June 10.

Strasbourg, May 31. The Marshal de Villars having receiv'd all his Bread- and Baggage-Waggons and Artillery, broke up from Raftad the 29th Instant, and took his March by Pfortsheim towards the Neckar. All the Booty of Cannon, Ammunition, and Baggage, which our Troops found in the Enemy's Lines, is brought into Fort-Louis. Those Lines, together with all the Intrenchments and Forts which the Germans had made along the Rhine from Stollhoffen down to Philipsburg, are intirely demolish'd. Yesterday the Garrisons of Brisac, Mulhausen, Colmar, Schlestadt, and some other Places of the Upper Alsatian, making together about 4000 Men, pass'd through this City and cross'd the Rhine over the Bridge of Fort-Kehl. They speed their March to joyn the Marshal de Villars, who makes his Troops keep exact Discipline, and proposes to draw such Contributions from the Enemy's Country, as may maintain his Army the whole Campaign without any Charge to the King.

Paris, June 3. The Marshal de Villars has acquaint'd the King by an Express, that having extended the Contributions in the Enemy's Country quite up to Nuremberg, he reckon'd he should have 25000 Livres brought in to him every Day, in Money, Provisions, and Forrage, for maintaining of his Majesty's Troops. Yesterday his Majesty dispatch'd a Courier to him, with his Approbation of a new new Project of the Marshal's which is not yet di-ulg'd. Private Letters inform us, that after the said Marshal had possest himself of the Enemy's Lines, he made an Oration to his Troops on the Importance of the Success; and told them that to make the best Use of it, it behov'd them to refrain from plundering and laying waste the Country, lest they should deprive themselves of the Means of subsisting in the long March he intended to lead them; and that besides, it was of great Moment for the King's Service to raise large Contributions, which could not be done if the Country was tuin'd. And he has publish'd rigorous Orders against marauding and plundering.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 9.

Spiers, June 4. We have receiv'd Advice, that the Marshal de Villars has demanded of the Dutchy of Wirtemberg 6 Millions for Contributions, and 20000 Livres of the Marquisate of Baden Durlach; and has signified to the Regency of the Palatinat, that they must send to his Army 150 Waggons with 4 Horses each, 1500 Pioneers, and 4000 Sacks of Meal.

Heidelberg, June 4. Yesterday the Enemy's Army march'd from Pfotsheim to Illingen 7 Leagues above Heilbron, and is now encamp'd there. Common Report makes their Army to be stronger than it was at first thought to be; their Horse especially is said to be well appointed. The German Army being too weak to oppose them, have intrench'd themselves in the Neighbourhood of Averbach and Schondorf.
The Enemy give out they will penetrate to Bavaria, &c. They have commanded the Regency of this Country to furnish 1000 Pioneers to rebuild the Fort which stood on the Right side of the Rhine over against Fort-Louis, and was demolish'd by Virtue of the Treaty of Ryswick: It is to be made stronger and have more Works about it than formerly: The said 1000 Pioneers are to be reliev'd at the End of 14 Days by a like Number, and those by others till the Work be finish'd.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 10.

Heilbron, June 4. The City of Stugard has accepted Sauve-gardes from the Enemy, whose Army is marching towards Tubingen: The Imperialists are not far from that Place, and have sent 4 Battalions to reinforce the Garrison of Ulm. The Duke of Wirtemberg is retir'd with his Troops into his own Territories, and has order'd all his People to take Arms.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 11.

Frankfort, June 5. 'Tis very much apprehended the Enemy will reduce the Duke of Wirtemberg to the Necessity of entring into a Neutrality; and that the intire Circles of Swabia and Franconia will hardly be able to exempt themselves from that Necessity. Multitudes of People fly hither for Refuge from the Enemy. Our Magistrates have given Order for raising Men with all Diligence. The Margrave of Bareith has thrown 4 Battallions into Villingen. Yesterday in the Evening an Express arriv'd here from Erfurt, sent by the Count of Boinenburg.
'Tis rumour'd he brings Advice, that 20000 Swedes are on the March out of Saxony.

Hague, June 10. Yesterday the States of the Province of Holland pass'd a Resolution to forbid their Subjects to Negociate the Mint-Bills of France: And having immediately communicated that Resolution to the States General, they approv'd it, and this Evening sent it to the Spanish Brabant, that the like Prohibition may be made there.

The Armies in Brabant continue in their former Camps.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, to Morrow being Wednesday, the 4th of June, will be Reviv'd a Comedy, call'd, The Squire of Alsatia. With Comical Dancing, &c.

At the Desire of several Persons of Quality.

For the Benefit of Mr. Norris.

By her Majesty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, on Thursday next, being the 5th of June, will be presented the last new Comedy, call'd, The Stratagem. Written by the Author of the Recruiting Officer.

LOST on Friday last the 30th of May in the Afternoon, a large FRENCH SPANIEL DOG, smooth Hair, his Head thick long and Liver-colour'd, as is also his Ears, and great part of his Body cover'd with large Liver-colour Spots, the rest White Mottled very thick with small Spots, his Tail near a Foot long. He had about his Neck a Leather Collar with a small Piece of Brads rivetted on, on which is engrav'd Col. Davenport in the First Troop of Horse-Guards in Jermyn-street, London. Whoever will bring him or give notice that he may be restor'd to Mr. Dean at the 2 Green-Balls in Jermyn-street near St. James's Church, shall have TWO GUINEAS Reward.

Between Temple-Bar and St. Clements Church, next Door but 2 to the Anchor Tavern, is a double House to be Let, by Lease or by the Year, containing a large Shop, Closets in all the Rooms, 4 Story high, with Leads on Top, large Cellars, and a Vault under-ground. Inquire at the next Door a Perriwig-Makers Shop, or at Mr. Benard's House at Doctors-Commons.

On Friday the 6th of June 1707, will be Expos'd to Sale at Lloyd's Coffee-House in Lombard-street, at 3 o'Clock in the Afternoon, the following Wines, viz. 22 Pipes of Red Port. To be seen from to Morrow the 4th Instant till the Hour of Sale. Sold by Henry Hodges sworn Broker without the Arch near Crutched-Fryars, where there is constant Attendance given to Merchants and others.

Ministers Gowns and Catsocks, Silk and Worsted Sashes, Lawyers Gowns, Livery-Gowns and Hoods, and all sorts of Gowns for Mayors and Aldermen of any Corporation in England.
Sold by Anthony Ingram Robe-maker at the Sign of the Gown and Livery-hood in Pater-Noster-Row near the North-Gate of St. Paul's Church, who hath of them ready made by him, and Sold at reasonable Prices. And also Black Cloath and Prunella sold for Ministers wear.

Long before any such thing as a Venetian Strop was ever hatcht or thought on, were often publish'd the true Original Strops for setting Razors, Pen-knives and Lancets to a most exquisite fine Edge, and polishing them to an extraordinary Brightness, and had not then been known to answer the just character given them through the whole Nation, the Verè Ian Author had never Aped 'em under a Sham Title, and had the Impudence to impose that Name upon those he knows to be the true ones first publ sh'd in England, therefore beware of those and other Counts f i s, the True ones being only Sold at John's Coffee-house in Sweeting's Alley near the Royal Exchange, at 1 s. each, with directions fix'd to 'em, as hath been often mention'd in the Gazette. Foul Billingsgate Language (mention'd in the Generous Advertiser) deserving no other Answer than this.

The Clergy-Man who Cures the Kings-Evil liveth in Sherburne-Lane near Lombard-street, whose Knowledge and Experience in healing of this Distemper came from Cureing himself, it being evident that no Person was ever more grievously afflicted therewith then he has been, who (for this 10 Years past) enjoyeth as good Health and found Constitution as any Man living. Encouragement sufficient had he no other evidence of the Efficacy of his Medicines) to recommend them to the publick.

10 A Physical Discourse of the Cause and Cure of the Kings-Evil, different from the Sentiments and Practice of An-tient and Modern Physicians. Also several Reasons therein contain'd why the Royal Gift of Healing doth not succeed in all People alike.
Will be publish'd by the same Person, and Sold by Timothy Childe.

Newly Publish'd.

Arithmetica Universalis; five de Compositione, & Resolutione Arithmetica Liber, cui accessit Halleyana Equationum Radices Arithmetice Inveniendi Methodus. In Usum Juventutis Aca-demicas. Cantabrigiae Typis Academicis. Londini Impensis Benj.
Tooke Bibliopolis juxta Medii Templi Portam in vico vulgo vocato Fleetstreet, 8°. Price 4 s. 6 d.

Just publish'd.

A List of all the Ships and Vessels belonging to the Royal Navy of Great Britain, when, where, and by whom Built, with their Dimensions, Number of Men, and Guns. To which is added, The Queen's Picture, and his Royal Highnes Prince George Lord High Admiral; with her Majestys Arms as they are now depicted by the Heralds: Curiously Engrav'd on a Copper Plate. Price 6 d. Sold by B. Bragg in Pater-Noster-Row, where may be had a true Printed List taken from the Copper Plate. Price 2 d.

The Royal Chymical Wash-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that use them; and that for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallel'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmetic, &c. it is indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ring-worms, Morpheus, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimpls, Pits or Redness of the Small-pox, &c. keeping it off a lasting and extream Whiteness, it soon alters red or rough Hands, and is admirable in Shaving the Head, which not only gives a more exquisite sharpnes to the Razor, but so comforts the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catch-Cold, and is of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Is sold only by Mr. Allnutt, Glover, the corner of Popes-Head-Alley against the Royal Exchange, and a Mrs. Giles's, Milliner and Toyshop next Hercules-Pillar-Alley by the Temple, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions at large.

ADVERTISEMENT.

A Parallel of the Ancient Architecture with the Modern, &c. Written in French by Roland Greart, Sieur de Cham-bray, Made English for the Benefit of Builders. To which is added an Account of Architects and Architecture, in an Historical and Etymological Explanation, of certain Terms particularly affected by Architects, with Leon Baptista Alberti's Treatise of Statues. By John Evelyn, Esq; Fellow of the Royal Society. The ad Edition with large Additions. Printed for D. Midwinter at the Rose and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard.

A 2d Defence of an Argument made use of in a Letter to Mr. Dodwell, to prove the Immateriality and Natural Immortality of the Soul, in a Letter to the Author of a Reply to Mr.
Clark's Defence, &c. By S. Clark Chaplain to the Lord Bishop of Norwich. Printed for J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, price 6 d. Where may be had his Letter to Mr. Dodwell, and 1st Defence, his Boyle's Lectures for 1704 and 1705, his Paraphrase on the Gospels, his Essays on Baptism, Confirmation, and Repentance, and his Sermons before the Queen.